Active Homework: Get reading in some interesting places and take a photo to send in for our Extreme Reading Challenge.

Weekly Update

The children have been busy this week and it's been lovely having the opportunity to visit most of the classes on a Learning Walk. Our focus this term is looking at our Art curriculum and teaching, whilst reviewing the provision we have in place to help create the next generation of budding Artists.

Lots of our children enjoyed a Family Learning session on Wednesday with their family members. The focus was on making gifts for an important female in their lives.

The children created an array of gifts including— lanterns, flowers and special pebbles.

Next week we are celebrating World Book Day on Thursday so remember it's wear pyjamas with their favourite bedtime book, if you have it, or dress as a book character.

Coffee Morning in School

You are all invited to a coffee morning in school on Friday 8th March at 9:30am. Martin our Education Mental Health Practitioner who works for Northpoint Wellbeing (CAMHS) will be hosting the session. This will be an opportunity for him to share with you the services he offers and speak to you about any workshops or events you would like him to run for you in the future. This is an informal session so we really would welcome your support as the aim is to help and advise you and your families, even if just to signpost you to other agencies.
